Rally Report:

Bruce Rock 19th Birthday Rally.

At 4 pm on Thursday Alan opened the Rally and we had some great discussions.

At 7 pm we enjoyed some quizzes and jokes in the campers kitchen. As it was a cold night we all departed quite early.

Friday morning tea in the campers kitchen and then most of us walked into town to visit some of the shops, and when the time came we went for lunch at the Bruce Rock Hotel.

Lunchtime was noisy as usual and there were lots of discussions. The food was very nice. From Chicken to Prawns, Beef, Thai Salads and Carbonara. After lunch a well deserved walk back to the park.

In the afternoon it was nice outside. Some games some repairs, reading and active brains for Chess, Draughts etc.

Then Happy hour.

At night most attended for the evening. Pass the parcel and lots of quizzes and activities ending with chase the ace. Also everyone joined in with a singalong. A lively affair.

Ed won the Pass the Parcel, but could not figure out what it was. It was a Camping Cutlery Set. This quizzes needed brain power especially the one for working in pairs. Everyone got 100% for that one. Thanks to Mim for all the work she put in for organising the weekend activities.

Saturday morning we all walked into town to the café for morning tea. Nice Murals in Town.

While there we supported the local school with their bake sale as they were raising funds for a school trip to Kalgoorlie.

The café owner appreciated the custom. We were thanked profusely. Thanks to Mim for warning them the day before.

After morning tea we had a quick game of Finska with those who were there. Won twice by Bert.

After Lunch time to put up some decorations for our Birthday Party.
Was Elma PARTON having problems?

It was requested that we came to Happy Hour at 4pm dressed up in costumes themed on the first letter of our name to celebrate the FWCCC's 19th Birthday.

Chris and John Nigtingale Couldn't make it but joined in the celebration from home.

The winners were decided by secret ballot and Wendy, dressed as a Willy Wagtail won, with Elma as the runner up dressed as Dame Edna.

The Raffle was also drawn and won by Robin Hood and Maid Marion.

Dinner, which was supplied by all the members, first the hot dishes followed by dessert. There was lots to choose from and enjoyed by all. Thanks to everyone for a great dinner.

Birthday Candles were blown out by our four remaining founding members.

After all was tidied up we played another game of pass the parcel, won by Corrie, followed by Chase the Ace.

Another great and successful Rally full of laughter, fun and companionship. Hope to see everyone at the next Rally.

Our AGM is coming up on Sunday the 7nd July 2024. A Further notice of the AGM will be sent out on 23rd June 2024 which will contain the location and time.
