Rally Report: Estuary Caravan Park Rally was opened by our President Elma at 4 pm.

We gathered for happy hour behind the caravans with a wonderful view of the estuary. The wind was quite strong keeping the little flies at bay but not the march flies. They don't have a calendar. Len was credited with most MARCH FLIES killed.

At about 6 pm some of us had dinner in the Campers Kitchen which was followed at 7 pm by games. Some quizzes and then chase the ace. Nice to see Len and Helen joining us.

Friday morning we had a combined morning tea and meeting which was followed by Lunch at the Restaurant Café Coast at the Port Bouvard Marina which was very nice. Most of us even had dessert. Nice to see Wendy who joined us for lunch. Thanks to Elma for finding this beautiful Restaurant.

In the afternoon at happy hour we all had a relaxing time. Some of the ladies even played a few games of Keezen. Rick caught browsing the TEMU specials.

Night time we got together in the Campers Kitchen with the faulty Lights. Mim had some nice quizzes which was followed by a game of Chase the ace.

Saturday morning we had morning tea in anticipation of the upcoming Horse Race. It was also nice to have Jeanne and Wendy join us for the races.

A special thanks to Mim for organising and running the races.

First round of races were won by:

1st Race Corrie

2nd Race Len

3rd Race Elma

Second round of races won by:

1st Race Brian

The final race was then run and after a very exciting race won by Elma.

Our Vice President Alan presented Our President Elma with the FWCCC 2024 Cup.

Brian and Rick were observed cleaning up the horse excrement. No Gloves??????

After the races we prepared our Salads and Desserts for Lunch. Thanks to Brian for rounding up the Chooks. This was a delicious feast enjoyed by all.

Alan presenting Elma with the Raffle prize.

Our final Happy Hour after a very enjoyable rally. After dinner we still enjoyed some together time with games in the Campers Kitchen.
