Rally Report: Thursday the Club Rally started at Cunderdin. Our new President, Elma opened the meeting at happy hour at 4 pm. Lots of nice chatter till 6pm when everyone organised their dinner and returned to the campers kitchen by 7pm to enjoy some games.

Then back to the caravans as it was very cold.

Friday, morning tea outside the camper's kitchen in the sun when Ben and Corrie arrived as Ben had to have his stitches out after a renovation mishap. They stayed in one of the Chalets. Alan seemed happy to see Corrie.

Nice welcome and catch up, then getting ready for a walk to the town where we went to the Ettamogah Pub for some nice lunch .

After Lunch another walk back to the Caravan Park.

We retired to the Campers Kitchen where we played some board games to pass the time.

Then happy hour with the usual conversations, retiring at 6 pm to have some dinner and returning to the camper's kitchen to play LCR and chase the ace.

Sherlock (John Nightingale) had found a key and quizzed the members if they had left one in the toilets. The owner was Elma so John saved the day.

Mim brought out the sweets left over from last rally which gave us all a sugar high.

Alan kept getting "KEEP" when he only had 1 coin left. He was "ECSTATIC".

Saturday morning the members provided lots of goodies for morning tea. It was nice and sunny outside where we enjoyed each other's company.

After morning tea we had a committee meeting in the camper's kitchen.

Then the peace was shattered as Bert had a broken toilet in his caravan. Ben looked at it and had to hand over to Rick as Ben's hand was not up to doing big jobs. After removing the toilet Rick got it working again and saved the day. (Could have been a shitty situation).

After lunch Elma and Ben played Chess, Rick and Corrie played Dominoes while others watched football and played on their phone.

Dinner was supposed to be a BBQ, however the BBQ was wet and did not work well, so we cooked our meat in our caravans and shared our salads. Because Ben and Corrie were in a Chalet Ben cooked his meat in the camper's kitchen.

The raffle was drawn at Happy Hour and won by Rick. He was not at the draw so was surprised when presented with the voucher by our President Elma at dinner.

After dinner we once again played some games of Chase the Ace and LCR.

Sunday morning we said goodbye to everyone. Some heading for home and Rick, Mim, Sandra and Alan starting on a trip for a few weeks holidays. Have a good trip guys. Thank you Mim for all the hard work you do.

A big thanks to all who made this Rally a success and hope to see you all at the next Rally.
