RALLY NEWSLETTER

Cunderdin Caravan Park

7th to 10th August 2025

View of Cunderdin from Lookout.

Attendees: Terry & Glenis Cahill, Brian Cotterell, Ben & Corrie Hille, Alan & Sandra Phillips, Rick & Mim Taylor, Bert & Elma Vreeken, Rally Report: Everyone arrived and was settled by approximately 1 PM. Most then proceeded to the campers' kitchen for lunch.

Following our meal, we lingered for a conversation, during which Rick, who has embarked on a new hobby involving 3D printing and laser engraving, showcased some samples of his handiwork. Very intriguing and exceptionally executed, Rick.

Happy hour commenced at 4 PM, where Elma opened the Rally and provided an update on the weekend's activities. The campers' kitchen also now features a wood heater, which Rick lit during happy hour, creating a wonderfully comfortable environment.

Around 5:30 PM, we returned to our vans for dinner and then back to the campers' kitchen at 7 PM for games.

Friday morning commenced with a brief meeting among the Committee members.

At 10 am, we convened for morning tea. At 12 pm, we proceeded to the Ettamoga Pub for lunch, an event organized by Elma. Thankyou Elma. The service was exceptional, and the food was quite nice.

At 3 pm, we reconvened for afternoon tea in the campers' kitchen, followed by Happy Hour at 4 pm, during which the raffle was drawn by Elma, with the prize being awarded to Corrie.

After dinner, we returned to the Campers' Kitchen for an engaging series of quizzes run by Mim, followed by spirited games of Chase the Ace and LCR.

On Saturday morning, our group made an excursion to Meckering for coffee, as Cunderdin lacks a café. The drive lasted a brief 17 minutes. Elma had notified the café owner of our party of 11, ensuring that upon our arrival, the seating was arranged for us. This café also operated as a sweets shop, bustling with numerous customers.

Coffee size orders were in Earthquake Magnitude Scale.

After enjoying our coffee, several members took a pleasant walk around the town, reading all about the 1968 earthquake. Railway track buckled by earthquake. Afterwards others chose to embark on a drive to Bulgin Rock.

Upon returning to Cunderdin, we relished our lunch and then engaged in a variety of games, including Keezen, cards, chess, and dominoes. At one moment, the wind surged to what felt like hurricane strength, and a few young boys, left behind in charge of a camper trailer, approached us for assistance as their annex had been blown down by the gusts. Their parents were in town attending a wedding.

For dinner, we delighted in a bring and share meal, with everyone contributing to an array of main dishes and desserts. Everyone was well fed.

After we had tidied up, we gathered and engaged in conversation, and Elma conducted an impromptu quiz.

Sunday morning time to pack-up and go home again. We were only a small group but enjoyed ourselves. Wishing everyone good health and hope to see you all at the next rally.
